10th National Sure Start Conference

Delivering quality services through sustainable, effective practice

Thursday 26th April 2012, The Lowry Arts and Entertainment Centre, Manchester M50

Speakers include:

Sharon Hodgson MP
Shadow Children's Minister

Elizabeth Elsom
Divisional Manager, EYFS Frameworks, Ofsted

Tracy Jackson OBE
Locality Manager, Crescent Children's Centre
Stoke-on-Trent: Judged 'Outstanding' by Ofsted inspection

Sir Paul Ennals
Chair, Children's Workforce Development Council (CWDC)

Why you must attend this event:

- Identify how best to achieve 'outstanding' practice
- Hear best practice case studies on accessing the hard to reach, working in partnership, reducing health inequalities and improving the wellbeing of children
- Discuss what sustainability strategies are working across the UK
- Assess what to prioritise in early years during periods of austerity
- Get an update from Ofsted: inspection, data management, self evaluation and evidencing outcomes

The Sure Start Conference continues to be the essential event for all children's centre leaders and local authority officers, equipping attendees with the most up to the minute policy and best practice guidance.

Challenging times require new ways of working to ensure sustainability, quality and the best possible outcomes for families.

This year speakers will share their expertise and knowledge through a series of forward thinking plenary sessions, panel debates and best practice workshops.
