
Good Governance and the Millennium Development Goals

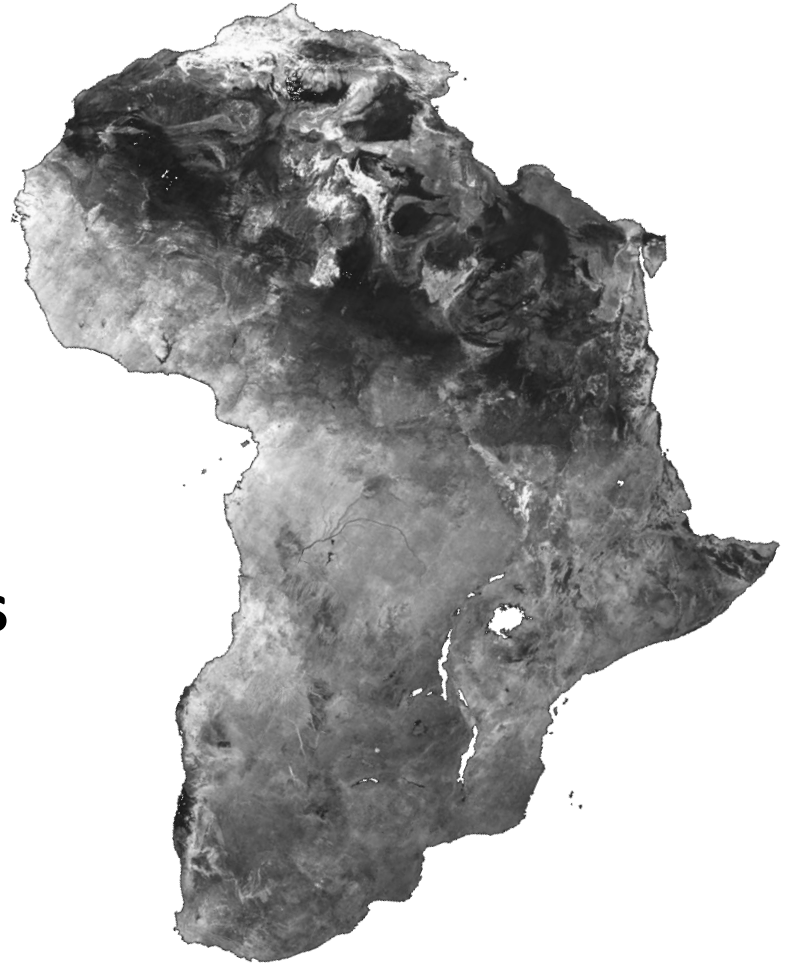

Presentation to CIPFA Conference

Paul Skidmore

paul.skidmore@tb-agi.org

16th March 2011

Can Africa achieve the MDGs

Not without good governance.

Governments that are accountable
and spend money wisely.

Governments that have the leadership and capacity to get things done.

A little quiz

Q1. In Rwanda in 2008, total government revenue – including all taxes and aid – was $145 per capita per year. In what year did the US have to make do with a similar level of government revenue?

- a. 1964
- b. 1904
- c. 1864

A little quiz

Q2. In 1990, life expectancy at birth in Ethiopia was about 4 years lower than in Zambia. Twenty years later, in 2010, was it:

- a. 9 years lower than in Zambia
- b. The same as Zambia
- c. 9 years higher than in Zambia

A little quiz

Q3. In 2005, Tanzania was off-track on most of the MDGs. But on average, how many donor missions did the Tanzanian government have to host that year, when it could have been implementing its programmes?

- a. 2 per day
- b. 2 per week
- c. 2 per month

Millennium Development Goals Report

2010

Q4. How many times is the word 'governance' mentioned in the most recent Millennium Development Goals report from the United Nations?

- a. 12
- b. 24
- c. 48
- d. 0

