

Supporting Creative Industries - New routes into arts and culture

Progression routes in the arts

30 June 2011

Laura Gander-Howe
Director of Learning

A woman in a white, flowing dress and tall boots is captured in a dynamic dance pose within a dark forest at night. She is illuminated by a spotlight, with her arms extended and one leg lifted. The background shows the silhouettes of trees and a dark forest floor.

ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND

Achieving Great Art for Everyone

- Talent and artistic excellence are thriving and celebrated.
- More people experience and are inspired by the arts.
- The arts are sustainable, resilient and innovative.
- The arts leadership and workforce are diverse and highly skilled.
- Every child and young person has the opportunity to experience the richness of the arts.

Achieving Great Art for Everyone

‘Every child and young person has the opportunity to experience the richness of the arts’.

- ‘improving the delivery of arts opportunities for children and young people’
- ‘raising the standard of art being produced for, with and by children and young people’

Achieving Great Art for Everyone

“The arts leadership and workforce are diverse and highly skilled.”
